

Ryder Center

Ryder Center is named in recognition of SVSU's second president Jack Ryder.

It consists of the Cardinal Gym, Ryder Center, the Recreation Center, and the Fieldhouse.

Currently the Ryder Center houses the University's intercollegiate athletic programs as well as the campus recreation program and club sports.

Ryder Center Building Data

Total square feet: 454,892

Cardinal Gym

- 36,000 Sq. ft.
- Constructed in 1971
- Architect: Prine-Toshach-Spears Architects & Engineers Inc.
- Contractor: Forrester Construction

Ryder Center

- 202,000 Sq. Ft.
- Constructed in 1989
- Architect: Giffels Hoyem Basso Associates, Inc.
- Contractor: Spence Brothers

Recreation Center

- 15,000 Sq. ft.
- Constructed in 2003
- Architect: Wakely Associates Mt. Pleasant Inc.
- Contractor: Wolgast Construction

Recreation Center Addition

- 48,000 Sq. ft.
- Constructed in 2011
- Architect: Wigen Tincknell Meyer & Associates
- Contractor: R.C. Hendrick & Sons Construction

Fieldhouse Addition

- Approx. 153,000 Sq. ft.
- Constructed in 2013
- Architect: Rossetti
- Contractor: Three Rivers Construction

Locker Room Addition

- Approx. 9,000 Sq. ft.
- Constructed in 2014
- Architect: TSSF
- Contractor: Three Rivers Construction