Note:

Your program of study and any specializations must be accurately indicated in Cardinal Direct in order to ensure proper recognition and participation within the Tk20 system.

To check what program of study you are officially enrolled in, log into Cardinal Direct, go to your Profile and under the “Academics” section click on “My Academics”.

If your program of study, including any additional majors or minors is not listed accurately, please contact the College of Education Admissions and Certification Office at coeconnect@svsu.edu, or you may also send a change of program request to Tk20help@svsu.edu.
