

English for Academic Purposes

EAP*078

Analytical Writing

To use writing processes that develop exploratory drafts into revised prose for specific audiences

To compose formal college level essays that exhibit the requisite skills to meet academic discourse needs at the university level

To read for meaning and identify audience, purpose, and genre using a variety of reading strategies.

To effectively participate in interactive and collaborative reading and writing activities.