

Individual Tutoring Sessions

Available by appointment

Forty-five-minute private tutoring sessions will be available to students for tutoring in any SVSU math class numbered from 081 through 262 or any physics class numbered from 107 through 212.

During the fall and winter semesters, sessions will be available during all hours in which we are open. We will offer online appointments, and we will try to honor requests for face-to-face appointments when possible, depending on staffing and safety. In the Fall semester, all appointments are online will be online on Sundays.

Students will be able to sign up online for one session at a time, up to one week in advance. More than one student can sign up together for a study group and reserve more than one session in a row.

Signing up for an appointment

We no longer do scheduling through TutorTrac. As of spring 2020, we now schedule private tutoring through Microsoft Teams' Booking application.

To schedule an appointment, either follow the link on our main page under "Schedule your appointment here" or follow this link:

<https://outlook.office365.com/owa/calendar/MPRC@svsu0.onmicrosoft.com/bookings/>.

First, choose what set of services applies to you, i.e., which class you are taking.
