Shakespeare
FESTIVAL

Join OLLI members and friends on our 16th annual two-day whirlwind motorcoach trip to the Stratford Festival in Stratford, Ontario. Registration begins February 18.

◆ Chicago

Sin, Dance and All That Jazz

Aspiring chorus girl Roxie Hart and vaudeville star Velma Kelly, two murderesses as sexy as they are cynical, compete for the skills of shady lawyer Billy Flynn and the media fame he has promised them both. With its killer score and knock-'em-dead dance numbers, this deliciously lurid tale of murder, greed, adultery – and all that jazz – packs some serious heat. Book by Fred Ebb and Bob Fosse; Music by John Kander; Lyrics by Fred Ebb; based on the play by Maurine Dallas Watkins; script adaptation by David Thompson and directed and choreographed by Donna Feore.

◆ Three Tall Women

The Emotional Journey of a Lifetime

By turns acerbic, haughty, self-pitying and anguished, a wealthy old woman reminisces to two younger companions, sharing her past experiences in sometimes shocking detail. But are her two hearers only who they seem to be? And how did this dying woman come to be who she is? How can any of us know who we really are – or who we will become? By Edward Albee and directed by Diana LeBlanc.

◆ Richard III

He'd Kill For a Crown - As often as it takes

Charismatic, cunning and utterly ruthless, the misshapen Richard, Duke of Gloucester, is the very embodiment of lethal ambition as he manoeuvres and murders his way to the throne of England. But once one reaches the top, the only way left is down – and in Richard's growing roster of vengeful enemies, none are more menacing than the ghosts of his past. By William Shakespeare, and directed by Antoni Cimolino
