Crisis Planning: Advice for Boards in Crisis

1. Know that the buck WILL really stop with you
2. Understand the necessity of being proactive
3. Rebalance your levels of intrusiveness vs. hands-off governance
4. Ensure board/school risk is being considered
5. Ensure full board is monitoring emerging risk(s) (of crisis)
6. Have a crisis plan but understand you cannot provide for everything
7. Control what you can as a board (in crisis) (versus allowing legal counsel to control everything)
8. Adjust your timing expectations: in a crisis, immediacy must rule
9. Make sure your board is high-functioning before a crisis occurs
10. Establish/discuss a “firm moral center” to your board in crisis
