

By the Scholar, for the Scholar

Payton Phillips

“I’m currently a 3rd year student at Saginaw Valley State University studying business management. I graduated from Landmark Academy, in Port Huron. I chose to come to SVSU because it’s only an hour and a half away from my house, as well as the fact that SVSU was the cheapest 4-year university I could find.

In 5 years, I see myself working for multiple companies. Also, having my own house built and ready to live in.

My best experience at SVSU would have to be the spring break of my freshman year. All my friends and I went to Fort Lauderdale, Florida. This was also the time that the clothing brand Introspectv became a real business.

My best experience with the Public School Academy Program would be the transition camp coming in my freshman year. It was boring to do at the time, but it really helped me understand the expectations for college.

Advice I would give to other students would be to enjoy their time at college, because not everyone gets to experience it.”
