

Public School Academy
By the Scholar, for the Scholar

Abigail Kuhns

“I am so honored to be selected as the student of the month for the Public School Academy Scholar program. I am a freshman student with a sophomore standing, majoring in theatre, and minoring in professional and technical writing.

My reading list is a mile high, and I’m one of those weird people who love to do homework. My favorite books right now are “My Antonia” by Willa Cather and “The Piano Lesson” by August Wilson.

You will probably see me around campus in a hammock, on my longboard, or in the library.

I have an unhealthy addiction to caffeine whether it be coffee, teas, or energy drinks. My life goal is to be a playwright and a traveling theatre critic.
