Bio/Statement

Shaun Bangert is an avid traveler, photographer, filmmaker, graphic designer, installation, and mixed media artist who has exhibited her work both nationally and abroad.

The photographs presented here are a part of a larger series entitled "32,000 Feet," an ongoing project that has spanned the past 10 years. Taken with an iPhone, Bangert's love of abstraction and a predilection for viewing her surroundings from unexpected vantage points are evident. Taken in different locations around the country, this grouping of images represents just a one of the themes captured by Bangert's camera lens.

Ms. Bangert has worked at SVSU since 2000, and has a BFA from Siena Heights University, and an MFA from the University of Michigan. She presently teaches courses in graphic design including, but not limited to, advertising, digital imaging, package design, environmental graphics, video, and animation.
