

Postcard Poetry Contest

Tell us what you believe about Saginaw by writing a short poem (no longer than a postcard) about Saginaw's people, places, or history. Free postcards can be found at the SVSU Writing Center, the Butman-Fish Library, and the Little Free Library at the SVRC Marketplace or online at <https://forms.gle/jSu5t1bJ9kTKuUnM6>

This contest is open to individuals who live, work, or study in Saginaw County. Up to three winners will win a $100 cash prize, and their work may be featured on the SVSU website and in SVSU publications.

Submission Guidelines

Each participant may submit a maximum of three poems.

All poems must not exceed 20 lines; they need to fit on the back of the postcard.

Handwriting must be legible so the poems can be easily read.

Each poem must include the words "Saginaw, I believe." These words may be arranged in any order.

If not submitting electronically, mail physical postcards by April 30, 2020, to the Diane Boehm Writing Center, Saginaw Valley State University, 7400 Bay Rd., University Center, MI 48710.
