

Tyner Prizes: Faculty Nomination Form

Please complete and print this form (see Note below), attach it to the student submission, and submit materials to Tamara Migan, English Department, tmmigan@svsu.edu. Visit <http://svsu.edu/writingprogram/writingawards/tynerprizes/> for the submission deadline.

Note: All fields may be filled-in electronically, excluding signature. This form may not be submitted online, as a signature is required.

Award category for nominated work (Select One):

Fiction

Nonfiction

Poetry

Student's Name: _____

Department and Course: _____

Title of Student's Paper/Work: _____

Semester and Year Written: _____

Faculty members in English may nominate any work of fiction, nonfiction, or poetry written for a current class or for a class held since January 1 of the current year. Nominations are not restricted to English majors or minors; but are limited to work produced for English classes. The nominated work may be revised before submission and is limited to 25 pages.

Note: Honors theses, Faculty Association Scholarship projects, and the like are not eligible for nomination. Contact Tamara Migan, at tmmigan@svsu.edu with questions concerning submission eligibility.

A panel of three judges will read anonymous submissions and make determinations. Judges' decisions will be announced at the Annual Writing Awards Reception in April (see Tyner Prizes for Awards Reception date).

*Students may also request that a teacher nominate their work.

I, _____, nominate the paper/work identified above for the Tyner Prizes. I have reviewed this paper/work and assure that privacy and confidentiality issues have been addressed. I certify that the student paper/work is free of name, course number, or distinguishing characteristics; that to the best of my knowledge, this is the student's own work; that the student's paper/work is suitable for publication (paper/work may be revised for a general audience); that the paper/work has not been published previously; and that the paper/work appropriately cites all sources used.
